Book Chatter

This is a special session filled with fun and stories for pre-school children. Parents, grandparents and carers all welcome!

Can we please remind parents not to park in the car park unless you have a permit issued by the office. This also applies if you are dropping your child off late or picking them up early.

Your child's safety is very important and as we have lots of visitors to school the car park can be a dangerous place.

Your support in this matter would be much appreciated.
